One specialty area of our focus is coaching & consulting for a variety of purposes. What is the difference between coaching and consulting?

Consulting analyzes your ministry or church and suggests ways to help you, staff, and key leaders achieve desired results. What challenges is your church facing? What are your growing edges? How do you move to the next level of ministry? How do you develop effective systems to manage your ministry?

Our Christian mentoring and life coach techniques may include vision casting, writing a mission statement, team building, conflict resolution, and trouble shooting and more.
